

Dodge County Horsemen's Association, Inc.
Stallion Breeding Agreement

In consideration of one dollar and other good and valuable considerations, we, the owners of the stallion _____ sell, transfer, and assign DCHA, Inc. a breeding service for the year _____ to the above named stallion. It is expressly understood by all parties to this agreement that this breeding service is assignable only by DCHA, Inc. pursuant to the terms and conditions of its annual stallion service auction for the year in which said breeding applies, said terms and conditions being incorporated herein by direct reference thereto. All parties to this agreement are further bound and agree to all of the following terms and conditions:

1. That the breeding season in force for this contract begins February 1 through remainder of year. The mare owner shall be entitled to one return privilege in the following year for the same mare or a substitute in the event of death of the said mare.
2. That should the above named stallion die or become unfit for breeding purposes and the said mare has not been serviced by said stallion, then any monies paid may go toward the purchase of an unsold stallion the current year or the following year for that season only.
3. The stallion owner will not be responsible for any disease, accident, sickness, and/or death of mare or foal, and similarly mare owner will not be responsible for any disease, accident, sickness, and/or death of stallion.
4. Mare must be halter broken in order to qualify for this breeding service.
5. Board/mare care will be charged by stallion owner's current rates.
6. Stallion owners will diligently try to settle below named mare to the best of their abilities, and shall have absolute discretion to determine the best method to breed each mare, including the right to retain a licensed veterinarian to assist therein. The mare owners shall pay veterinary expenses.
7. DCHA is not responsible for any mare owners' expenses due to the sale or relocation of the stallion.
8. A breeders certificate from the stallion owner shall be furnished mare owner upon payment in full of all veterinarian, board, or mare care expenses.
